

Travel Diary Assembly Instructions

Supplies

To assemble the printed pages of the travel diary, you'll need:

- scissors
- glue, tape, or a stapler and staples
- a paper punch
- decorative string or ribbon

Instructions

1. Trim off the edges of the five printed pages.
2. Fold the cover in half with the blank sides facing together.
3. Fold each of the other four pages with the printed sides facing together.
4. Glue, tape, or staple the pages together as follows:
 - the back of page 1 to the inside front cover
 - the back of page 2 to the back of page 3
 - the back of page 4 to the back of page 5
 - the back of page 6 to the back of page 7
 - the back of page 8 to the inside back cover
5. On the outside edge of the diary, paper punch the two holes where marked.
6. Thread a decorative string or ribbon through the two holes, and tie the ends together.
7. Complete the travel diary by gluing or taping a cutout picture of your doll onto the cover.
